
Patria Finance, a well-established investment brokerage company with nearly 25 years of experience on the Czech market, is seeking a Senior Equity Analyst to expand their research team. The analyst will cover a variety of companies on the Czech stock market and within the CEE region.

We are currently looking for employees:

SENIOR EQUITY ANALYST

Job description:

- ◆ Conduct fundamental research on equities and generate ideas for institutional/retail sales teams
- ◆ Conduct financial analysis related to specific companies on the Prague Stock Exchange and within the CEE region
- ◆ Analyse publicly available information, earnings reports and published research to create investment mosaic
- ◆ Communicate regularly with the management of the companies and their IR teams
- ◆ Search for market ideas and communicate them to internal constituents and clients
- ◆ Stay up-to-date with market development or any other changes that can affect the markets/companies under coverage

Requirements:

- ◆ University degree in finance/economics or focused on mathematics/statistics
- ◆ CFA charterholder or candidate in the CFA program is advantage
- ◆ Minimum 3-5 years of experience in equity research; flexible to both buy-side and sell-side analysis
- ◆ Ability to distil research into an investable thesis and write reports/notes in both Czech and English
- ◆ Strong analytical and quantitative skills
- ◆ English and Czech language at an advanced level
- ◆ Ability to think independently, make decisions quickly, and have the confidence and drive to be successful
- ◆ Excellent communication, interpersonal, organizational and problem solving skills

We Offer:

- ◆ Opportunities for professional and personal growth and career development
- ◆ Competitive compensation and comprehensive benefits package

In case of your interest in this position, please send your curriculum vitae to the following e-mail address: hrabetova@patria.cz.

By submitting your CV, you acknowledge that you have become familiar with the data processing of your personal information in the Information Memorandum for Applicants here.