The company NET4GAS, s.r.o. ("N4G") by means of its previous announcements informed that it had initiated arbitration proceedings to recover receivables arising from the key contracts entered into with its main Russian customer, Gazprom Export ("GPE"). N4G now announces that an arbitral award has been issued in the third arbitration proceeding. The arbitral tribunal upheld N4G's statement of claim against GPE in respect of 96.46% of the claimed amounts including default interest. Due to the ongoing proceedings, the company will not comment further on the matter.
